

Press Release

THIS IS THE MOMENT - A Song for Thailand

On the eve of Phuket opening to International tourists, British Producer Will Robinson is releasing a music video called "This is the moment" to help encourage tourists to come back to Thailand.

The video filmed in 23 stunning locations of a couple on an extraordinary dream adventure in Thailand including breath taking scenes in the mountains of Chiang Rai, Loei, Wat Thang Sai in Prachuap Khiri Khan, and a yacht sailing off into the Indian Ocean sunset from Promthep Cape in Phuket. There is also a cameo appearance in Kanchanaburi bathing the elephants at Taweechai Elephant camp by Ex Tourism and Sports Minister of Thailand Senator Weerasak Kowsurat. Senator Weerasak says "Thai hospitality is not just an important industry in Thailand but Thai hospitality is in our culture and ways of life, sovereignty of the land has never been away from us, we therefore, no matter live anywhere in the Kingdom we always see visitors as guests who we thank for paying us a visit. I have already heard the song nice melody and I think it's beautiful".

"This is the moment" is part of Will's music project "The Isan Project" and features the golden voice of "Sonna Rele" who was the vocals of Disney's Cinderella theme "Strong". "This Is the moment" is written by Will and Daniel Ryan and is part of the Isan Project's forthcoming album "The Beautiful North".

Having travelled to many parts of Thailand including Phuket on many occasions, Will fell in love with Thai culture and enjoys traveling and writing lyrics from his experiences.

Will also recently produced "Where the eagles fly" a song about British Cave Hero "Vern Unsworth", who was the mastermind of the Tham Luang rescue which is currently being re created in a Hollywood Blockbuster movie with Ron Howard's MGM and he also made the popular video and song "Thailand Amazing Thailand" theme, Will says "Come to Thailand, there are so many amazing destinations including the new emerging ones, Thailand is open, it's time to enjoy yourself and leave behind the past, please come and support the Thai people and their great country." "This is the moment" is available on all digital stores.

Ends For More Information

Contact chayconnect7@outlook.com

www.theisanproject.com