SPAIN

An aerial photograph of Southern Europe, specifically focusing on Southern Spain. The image shows the rugged, mountainous terrain of the Iberian Peninsula, with the Mediterranean Sea to the east and south. The sky is blue with scattered white clouds. Several green rectangular labels with white text are overlaid on the image to indicate specific locations. In the top right corner, there is a logo for 'COSTA DEL SOL MÁLAGA SPAIN' featuring a stylized sun and waves.

A woman with blonde hair, wearing a grey tank top and patterned leggings, is sitting in a meditative lotus position on a blue yoga mat. She is on a tiled balcony with a black metal railing, looking out at a clear blue sea under a bright sky. To her left is a round wicker table with three glasses of juice (orange, green, and orange) and a small fruit basket. To her right are two white lanterns. The balcony is partially covered by a white structure, casting shadows on the floor. Palm trees are visible in the background.
